SARMAYA

Internship Opportunity: Numismatic Documentation Project

Position: Intern
Location: Mumbai
Duration: 3 months (January to March 2024)
Work Timings: Monday to Friday, 9:30 AM - 5:30 PM
This is a paid internship.

Job Description:

We are looking for highly motivated and detail-oriented interns to join our numismatic documentation project. As an intern, you will be crucial in cataloguing and documenting our extensive collection of coins and paper currency, providing a unique hands-on experience.

About the Numismatics Collection:

Numismatics constitutes the largest segment of the Sarmaya collection, which encompasses coins from diverse realms. These coins range from those minted in the 2nd century BCE to rare coins issued by influential kings and queens. Notable items in our collection include the Silver Tetradrachm of the Indo-Parthian kingdom, Silver rupee coins of Nikusiyar, Tipu's Qutbs, and Gold Pagodas from Vijayanagara. These coins narrate stories of ambition, struggle, wisdom, and bravery, reflecting their historical significance

Key Responsibilities:

- Catalogue and document the numismatic collection.
- Conduct research to provide historical context.
- Maintain accurate records and databases.
- Provide support for miscellaneous tasks as required.

Basic Requirements:

- Knowledge of early history of the Indian subcontinent
- Strong interest in numismatics, history, or archaeology.
- Attention to detail and a systematic approach to tasks.
- Ability to work both independently and collaboratively.
- Proficiency in Google Suite and access to a working laptop.

Internship Opportunity: Numismatic Documentation Project

Benefits:

- Gain valuable hands-on experience in numismatic documentation.
- Network with professionals in the fields of cultural heritage and numismatics.

How to Apply:

Interested candidates are encouraged to submit their resume and a cover letter outlining their interest in numismatics and the internship to connect@sarmaya.in.
